

School Readiness: Scissor Skills

Learning how to use scissors is a progression that begins before 2 years of age.

By the time your child begins school they should be able to use scissors safely to cut around objects (with errors).

Below is a depiction of the progression of scissor skills:

